105.2292_interviewfolder_n.d.

JOHN STILLWELL

Driver of the funeral hearse of Mr. Hall.

Is said to have testified before the 1926 Grand Jury, which indicted the defendants, that on the day of the funeral he observed scratches on Mrs. Hall's face.

Is said by his then employer, Mr. Hubbard, to be erratic and talkative.

-0-